

Local Estrogen Formulary Options (not systemic transdermal)

| Choices                      | Formulation                      | Brand                                                        | Estrogen content                 |                   | Pack size        |
|------------------------------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------|------------------|
| 1 st line options | Vaginal tablet                   | Generic is cost-effective                             | Estradiol 10micrograms pessaries |                   | 24               |
|                              | Vaginal cream                    | As Generic(Ovestin cream is discontinued.) | Estriol 1mg/g                    | (0.5mg per dose)  | 15g/30 doses |
|                              | Vaginal pessary                  | As generic                                            | Estriol 500 microgram pessaries  | (0.5mg per dose)  | 15               |
|                              | Vaginal pessaryNo applicator | Imvaggis                                              | Estriol 30microgram pessaries    | (0.03mg per dose) | 24               |
|                              | Vaginal gel                      | Blissel                                               | Estriol 50microgram vaginal gel  | (0.05mg per dose) | 30g/30 doses |
|                              | Vaginal tablet                   | Vagirux2nd line to generic      | Estradiol 10micrograms pessaries |                   | 24               |
|                              | Vaginal ring                     | Estring                                               | Estradiol 7.5micrograms/ 24hours |                   | 1(90 days)   |
| Not preferred choice         | Vaginal cream                    | Generic                                               | Estriol 0.01% vaginal cream      | (0.5mg per dose)  | 80g/16 doses |