What is this document about?

Our Privacy Notice provides details of how we use your information. Here, we'll tell you about information we collect and hold about you, what we do with it, how we will look after it and who we might share it with.

It is part of how we ensure we are open and transparent in the data processing activities we carry out, to meet our statutory obligations. It covers information we collect directly from you or receive from other individuals or organisations.

We will keep our privacy notice under regular review. This privacy notice was last reviewed in March 2023.

Commitment to Data Privacy and Confidentiality

We are committed to protecting your privacy and will only process personal confidential data in accordance with the data protection legislation, currently the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and Access to Health Records Act 1990 (covering records of deceased patients), alongside the common law duty of confidentiality.

All information that we hold about you will be held securely and confidentially.

We use administrative and technical controls to do this including strict procedures and encryption. We use strict controls to ensure that only authorised staff are able to see information that identifies you. This means only a limited number of authorised staff have access to information that identifies you where it is appropriate to their role and is strictly on a need to know basis.

All our staff, contractors and committee members receive appropriate and on-going training to ensure they are aware of their personal responsibilities. Our staff have contractual obligations to uphold confidentiality, enforceable through disciplinary procedures.

We will only use the minimum amount of information necessary about you.

We will only keep information in accordance with the schedules set out in the Records Management Code of Practice for Health and Social Care 2021.

Purposes of processing

As a public authority with responsibility for commissioning health services for the patient population of the county of Somerset, Somerset ICB processes personal data for a range of purposes to enable it to meet its statutory duties and functions including:

- the management and planning of healthcare services for the population of Somerset
- safeguarding children and vulnerable adults
- emergency planning activity such as in the major incident which occurred during the flooding across Somerset in 2014
- risk stratification or invoice validation – within the scope of approval of the Secretary of State for Health and Social Care
- to meet a legal obligation such as where a formal court order has been served on us
- where we are lawfully required to report certain information to appropriate authorities, such as to prevent fraud or a serious crime

Lawful basis for processing

UK GDPR and DPA 2018 provide six possible legal bases available for a data controller to use in justifying processing of personal data:

- consent of the data subject
- contract
- public task
- legal obligation
- vital interests
- legitimate interests

In general, Somerset ICB will only rely on consent where it is clearly necessary in law. Where we have a legal basis for sharing and using data without consent, we will do so. Details of the legal basis relied upon for processing are shown in the table of uses of information below.

Where do we receive information from?

We do not routinely hold nor have access to your medical records. We may need to hold some personal information about you, for example:

- if you have made a complaint to us about healthcare that you have received and we need to investigate
- if you ask us to provide funding for Continuing Healthcare services
- if you are using our Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS)
- if you ask us for our help or involvement with your healthcare, or where we are required to fund specific specialised treatment for a particular condition that is not already covered in our contracts with organisations providing NHS care
- if you ask us to keep you regularly informed and up to date about the work of the ICB
- if you are actively involved in our engagement and consultation activities or service user groups

Additionally we receive commissioning datasets from NHS Digital and through local data flows in anonymised or pseudonymised form. Further information is available at: About us - Symphony Healthcare Services

	Data Processing activities for Risk Stratification The ICB commissions third party analytic partners to conduct risk stratification on behalf of itself and its GP practices. Invoice Processing

A small amount of information that could identify you is used within a secure area, known as a Controlled Environment for Finance (CEfF), so that the organisations that have provided you with care/treatment are reimbursed correctly, this is known as Invoice Validation. This controlled area is currently within the SCWCSU but is in the process of transferring to the ICB.

Data Type

Personal Confidential Data – May include Primary and Secondary Care Data

Legal Basis

A Section 251 exemption enables us to process patient identifiable information without patient consent for the purposes of invoice validation.

Section 251 applications are approved by the Secretary of State for Health, who imposes very tight conditions on what information can be processed and by whom. On behalf of ICBs, NHS England made a Section 251 application, which was approved by the Secretary of Health for invoice validation, and extended until September 2022 to allow time for systems to be established to ensure that personal confidential data is processed lawfully.

More information about Section 251 is here: <http://www.hra.nhs.uk/aboutthe-hra/our-committees/section-251/what-is-section-251/>

Section 251 approval means we rely on the UK GDPR public task legal basis for this processing activity. Articles 6(1)(e) and 9(2)(h) – management of health and social care services.

For other invoices, the invoice validation process may currently involve us occasionally using your name or initials. Where possible, we use GP Practice codes (each GP Practice has one and use of this confirms services are being provided to our patients) and/or another agreed identifier which does not include personal confidential data.

If we receive any invoices with personal confidential data on we have a responsibility to work with suppliers to ensure that invoices from them do not breach patient confidentiality.

How to opt-out

Your right to opt out of data sharing and processing

The NHS Constitution states ‘You have a right to request that your personal confidential information is not used beyond your own care and treatment and to have your objections considered’. For further information please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-nhs-constitution-for-england>

There are several forms of opt-outs available at different levels:

Type 1 opt-out.

If you do not want personal confidential information that identifies you to be shared outside your GP practice you can register a 'Type 1 opt-out' with your GP practice. This prevents your personal confidential information from being used except for your direct health care needs and in particular circumstances required by law, such as a public health emergency like an outbreak of a pandemic disease. Patients are only able to register the opt-out at their GP practice and your records will be identified using a particular code that will stop your records from being shared outside of your GP Practice.

National data opt-out

The national data opt-out was introduced on 25 May 2018 and replaces the previous 'type 2' opt-out. NHS Digital collects information from a range of places where people receive care, such as hospitals and community services. The new programme provides a facility for individuals to opt-out from the use of their data for research or planning purposes. For anyone who had an existing type 2 opt-out, it will have been automatically converted to a national data opt-out from 25 May 2018 and will receive a letter giving them more information and a leaflet explaining the new national data opt-out. The national data opt-out choice can be viewed or changed at any time by using the online service at www.nhs.uk/your-nhs-data-matters

There are some circumstances where there is a legal obligation for us to process your personal confidential information and you will not be able to opt-out. These include:

- to protect children and vulnerable adults
- when a formal court order has been served upon us
- when we are lawfully required to report certain information to the appropriate authorities e.g. to prevent fraud or a serious crime
- emergency planning reasons such as for protecting the health and safety of others
- when permission is given by the Secretary of State or the Health Research Authority to process confidential information without the explicit consent of individuals
